Interview with Aisha Umar

Aisha Bade Umar is a student of Ahmadu Bello University, Zaria and an awardee of the 1st National Engineering Students' competition organized by the Committee of Deans and Technology of Nigerian University (CODET).

Aisha Umar

E-Newsletter: What award did you win and what is the topic of your project?

Aisha: I was given an Award as the second runner up for original technology competition and the topic of my project is Fabrication of Fuel Efficiency System.

E-Newsletter: What informed the choice of the topic?

Aisha: Actually as you know in the era we live in, there is the issue of fuel subsidy and as a result of that we decided to work on a fuel efficiency system which was a group work. We decide to construct a car that has light weight and can cover a very long distance with just little amount of fuel.

E-Newsletter: Thank you ma'am.
